Margaret River

Is located just over three hours drive south of Perth in the very south-western corner of Australia.

Situated in the centre of this world renowned wine region, it is the perfect location to hold any type of corporate event.

The climate is maritime, with the temperature rarely rising above 32 degrees celsius in summer. In winter the temperature range is generally between 11 and 18 degrees celsius.

As with all premium wine areas it has a strong gourmet food industry. There are wine events all year round, with the highlight being the Margaret River Wine Region Festival.

The Leeuwin-Naturaliste National Park runs along much of the 120-km long cape to cape coast. Scenic lookouts are numerous, one of the viewing highlights of the year being the whale watching in the months between June and December.

Visit the karri forests at Boranup, or admire the carpet of wildflowers, particularly in the month of October when the deep blue karri hovea, old man's beard, yellow cone bushes and yellow patersonia bloom.
